For vehicle registration, personnel must have proof of ownership, such as a title, if the vehicle has been registered in a title state; a manufacturer's statement of origin if the vehicle was purchased outside the continental United States; or a notarized bill of sale. In addition to the proof of ownership, the previous registration, if any, must be presented. At the time of registration, a vehicle identification inspection is made. The old license plates will be surrendered upon request. The cost for vehicle resident registration in Arizona is computed from a factory list price, prorated to the year of first registration.

HISTORY

“A camp which is a tent city is an expensive way to shelter troops and supplies. Constant replacement of canvas is costly... I recommend that... permanent buildings be erected (at Huachuca) and a garrison of some strength assigned here.”

*-James Biddle, Assistant Inspector General,
Department of the Pacific, in 1880*

Fort Huachuca

Fort Huachuca is a product of the Indian Wars of the 1870s and 1880s. In February 1877, Colonel August V. Kautz, commander of the Department of Arizona, ordered that a camp be established in the Huachuca Mountains. This camp would offer protection to settlers and travel routes in southeastern Arizona while simultaneously blocking the traditional Apache escape routes through the San Pedro and Santa Cruz valleys to sanctuary in Mexico. A temporary camp was established at the post's current location on March 3, 1877, by Captain Samuel Marmaduke Whitside with two companies of the 6th Cavalry. The site was selected because it had fresh running water, an abundance of trees, excellent observation in three directions and protective high ground essential for security against Apache tactical methods. Camp Huachuca was redesignated a fort in 1882.

In 1886, General Nelson A. Miles designated Fort Huachuca as his advance

headquarters and forward supply base for the Geronimo campaign. Geronimo's surrender in August 1886 practically ended the Apache danger in southern Arizona. The Army closed more than 50 camps and forts in the territory, but Fort Huachuca was retained because of continuing border troubles involving renegade Indians, Mexican bandits and American outlaws and freebooters.

In 1913, the 10th Cavalry "Buffalo Soldiers" arrived and remained almost 20 years. The 10th Cavalry joined General John J. Pershing in the 1916 expedition into Mexico and, during World War I, it was assigned the mission of guarding the United States-Mexico border.

By 1933, the 25th Infantry Regiment had replaced the 10th Cavalry as the main combat unit for the fort. The 25th, in turn, was absorbed by the 93rd Infantry Division during World War II. When the 93rd departed for the Pacific in 1943, the 92nd Infantry Division arrived at the fort for training and subsequent assignment to the European Theater. During the war years, the troop strength reached 30,000 men at the fort, which in the 1930s had been described as suitable for a brigade-sized unit of about 10,000 men.

At war's end, the fort was declared surplus and transferred to the State of Arizona. It was reactivated during the Korean War by the Army Engineers.

A new era began in 1954 when control passed to the Chief Signal Officer, who found the area and climate ideal for testing electronic and communications equipment. The importance of the fort in the national defense picture grew steadily from that moment. In 1967, Fort Huachuca became the headquarters of the U.S. Army Strategic Communications Command.

Then, in 1971, the post became the home of the U.S. Army Intelligence Center and School, bringing with it the School Brigade.

The Strategic Communications Command became the U.S. Army Communications Command in 1973, subsequently changing to the U.S. Army Information Systems Command in 1984, and to the U.S. Army Signal Command in 1997.

In October 1990, the post changed hands when the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command became the new host command; the U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca now operates the post.

Today Fort Huachuca is the major military installation in Arizona, and one of prominence throughout the Southwest.

Thunder Mountain

The post sits at the base of the Huachuca Mountains. That name comes from an obscure, local Indian language which, when loosely translated, describes a "place of thunder."

World War II soldiers.

Thunder Mountain is the nickname of choice among locals and it's accurate as well, depending on the time of year. The sight of dark clouds cascading down the mountainside while electricity, thunderclaps and water fill the air can be as awesome to modern man as it must have been to ancient Indians. The name must have referred to the visual spectacle rather than its frequency because, actually, Thunder Mountaineers enjoy some of the mildest and best weather found in Arizona.

The original Fort Huachuca cantonment was declared a National Historical Landmark in March 1977 during a four-day centennial celebration. A rustic wooden sign sits on the northeast corner of Brown Parade Field, the center of post life during the days of horse soldiers. Surrounding buildings and homes are maintained with the appearance and flavor of the old days.

Historical Museums

When Whitside led his column from the 6th Cavalry into southern Arizona and into the annals of history, he could scarcely be aware that the temporary post he was ordered to establish in the foothills of the Huachuca Mountains would survive to play a major role in the drama of the western United States.

This fascinating history of the U.S. Army in the Southwest, as well as the history of the Southwest itself, unfolds at the Fort Huachuca Historical Museum. Opened in 1960, the museum has grown rapidly and now houses one of the most representative collections in the state. The museum has been accredited by the American Association of Museums. The Fort Huachuca Historical Museum endeavors to bring to the military community and general public a heightened awareness of, and an increased appreciation for, the colorful history of the Southwest and, especially, the prominent part played by the U.S. Army.

The exhibits are instructive, entertaining and aesthetically satisfying. Some of the U.S. Army manuscripts and documents, dating back as far as 1861, can tell the viewer a great deal about the way of life on a rugged frontier.

The museum, in Building 41401, is open to the public without charge. Civilian visitors are welcome. Hours are 0900 to 1600, Monday through Friday, and 1300 to 1600, Saturday and Sunday. A leisurely walk through the museum has proven to be an enriching and stimulating experience for the thousands of guests who visit each month.

A Museum Annex across the street from the Fort Huachuca Historical Museum was officially opened in 1982, adding much-needed space to display some of the artifacts belonging to the museum. The renovation and reconstruction of the Building, formerly a theater, took approximately two years to complete.

Now there is a second museum on Fort Huachuca, the U.S. Army Intelligence Museum, located just down the street from the Fort Huachuca Museum. It looks at the development of the military intelligence profession within the U.S. Army and has in its collection a segment of the Berlin Wall, the "black box" used on a space mission to take pictures of the earth's surface, prototype code machines, as well as a number of other artifacts relating to Army intelligence. It tells the stories of men like Arthur Wagner, Ralph Van Deman, Parker Hitt and Charles Young who led U.S. Army intelligence into the 20th Century and account for it being the second largest officer's branch in today's Army.

For further information on the museums, donations of historical articles or contributions to the museum fund, write the Museum Director, U.S. Army Garrison, ATTN: ATZS-PAM, Fort Huachuca, Arizona 85613-6000, or call 533-5736 (3-5736 on post).

SERVICES & FACILITIES

"The mission of Raymond W. Bliss Army Health Center is to optimize the health and fitness of the Fort Huachuca community, to provide trained medical soldiers ready to accomplish the Army mission, and to appropriately apply available resources to achieve these ends."

Raymond W. Bliss Army Health Center is the health care provider of choice for TRICARE Prime beneficiaries in southeastern Arizona.

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Program

The Fort Huachuca Alcohol Drug Abuse Prevention and Control Program, (ADAPCP), sometimes referred to as the Army Substance Abuse Program or ASAP, is located in Building 22414. The program provides education, prevention, rehabilitation and biochemical testing services.

Eligible groups include active duty military, the civilian workforce, retirees and the families of each group. The program provides education and prevention services to both on- and off-post communities upon request. It also provides newcomer training to both military and civilian personnel. Specialized training and other services are available to military and civilian supervisors.

Counseling services include outpatient individual and group counseling, clinical evaluation, referral for inpatient treatment and guidance to individuals and families on intervention techniques when a family member (or other) has an alcohol or drug problem. Services are confidential except when otherwise limited by law or regulation. Information on individuals seeking services is protected by federal regulations on confidentiality.

Anyone seeking information is welcome to call 533-3604 (3-3604 on post).

The American Red Cross serving Fort Huachuca has established a new toll-free number for active duty military members needing emergency communication services. Active duty military members and their family members residing in the same household should call 1-877-272-7337 to reach the Armed Forces Emergency Service Center in Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Red Cross Armed Forces Emergency Services, with the help of its military partners, is responsible for delivering emergency messages to military men and women around the world.

The new AFES service centers' use of the newest and most advanced communication technology available and the use of the toll-free number will give active duty military members enhanced access and more timely Red Cross emergency assistance than ever before. Now all military members and their families who are assigned to domestic installations will have around-the-clock access to Red Cross emergency services nationwide through a toll-free call.

The new Armed Forces Emergency Service Center will make it much simpler for active duty military members to access the Red Cross emergency communication system without having to visit or contact the Red Cross office on their military installation or call their local Red Cross chapter. The center at Fort Sill manages calls within 26 western states. A second center in Falls Church, Virginia, manages all calls within a 12-state area along the East Coast as well as overseas and fleet-based emergency communications.

Fully operational in June 1999, the Armed Forces Emergency Service Center at Fort Sill serves as the Red Cross emergency communications center for 42 military installations in the midwestern region of the United States.

Army Career and Alumni Program (ACAP)

The ACAP Center staff provides transition services to soldiers (and their family members) who are separating from the Federal service. Soldier clients are initially scheduled for a Pre-Separation Briefing which provides information on transition services offered and locations of the transition service providers. All clients are then offered the opportunity to participate in job search skill development activities which begin with a three-day job search skills development workshop. The workshop covers job search skills such as resume and application development, dressing for success, interviewing skills, researching companies, networking, and considering and negotiating job offers. Clients are then encouraged to personally meet with professional counselors to develop and hone skills learned in the workshop and to use the computer workstations for developing resumes and researching job opportunities on the Internet.

The ACAP Center staff offers periodic VA Benefits Briefings and Federal Jobs Workshops. The ACAP Center is also the Federal Job Information Center for Fort Huachuca and the civilian community.

ACAP is located in Building 22420, in the Old Post area next to the AAFES Military Clothing Sales Store. Hours are from 0730 to 1630 daily. For information on Federal job opportunities and general information on the ACAP services, call 533-7314. To make an appointment for Pre-Separation Briefings, and three-day workshops, call 533-5764. The ACAP World Wide Web website address is www.acap.army.mil.

Army Emergency Relief

The Army Emergency Relief Office is located in Building 50010 at the Smith Avenue traffic circle.

The AER was organized during the early part of World War II by popular demand. Army members sought an agency of their own to which they could turn for assistance in emergencies.

Accordingly, AER was organized to collect, hold and disburse funds for this purpose. Its motto, "The Army Takes Care of Its Own," has been proudly supported since its beginning by both active and retired members of the military and their families.

Those eligible for AER assistance include soldiers on extended active duty and their dependents, Reserve component soldiers (ARNG and United States Army Reserve) on continuous active duty for more than 30 days and their dependents. This applies to soldiers on active duty for training or serving under various sections of title 10, United States Code. Also, soldiers retired from active duty for longevity, or retired by reason of physical disability, or retired at age 60 under section 1331, title 10, United States Code and their dependents, as well as surviving spouses and orphans of eligible soldiers who died while on active duty or after they were retired as identified above.

The AER works hand-in-hand with the American Red Cross and relief organizations of the Navy and Air Force.

In recognition of a need that exists for Army members, AER established an undergraduate educational assistance program as a secondary program to that of providing emergency financial assistance. The educational assistance program is designed to assist dependent children of Army personnel who need financial assistance to pursue post secondary level study, to include vocational training, preparation for acceptance by service academies and college education.

Army Emergency Relief emergency assistance is extended by cash grants, non-interest-bearing loans repaid by allotment, or both.

Personnel who need emergency assistance from AER should first report their problems to their unit commanders. The AER Officer or the officer's assistant will then conduct an interview. If all conditions of AR 930-4 are met and the situation warrants, AER will extend assistance.

Youth Services

Youth Services offers a wide variety of recreational, social and educational activities for youth 5 to 19 years old.

Youth Services offers a complete sports program for youths of all ages. During the fall, youths can play flag or tackle football, participate in cheerleading or take part in soccer. In the winter, Youth Services offers a basketball program. The baseball/softball program begins in the spring, and youth can participate in a variety of leagues.

Classes are offered to both youth and adults in a wide variety of activities including gymnastics, martial arts, dance and aerobics. Youth can also participate in weekly roller skating sessions conducted at Youth Services as well as special monthly events for teens and pre-teens.

Fort Huachuca is now home to the Rolling Thunder Skate Park, where boarders and bladers can coexist, riding rails and hitting ramps. Created with movable ramps so skaters would not get bored of the same old thing, the park is a versatile street course.

The park officially opened in June 1999. The park is nearly separated into two sections. One side has rails for grinding, different heights and lengths for the different difficulty levels. The other side has various sized ramps, quarter-pipes, a fun-box and a pyramid.

The fun-box is a collaboration of ramps with a two-foot tall and one-foot wide wall with metal rails on the edges for grinding. The box consists of three ramps all together that lead up a deck and then to the wall. Skaters can skate over the deck or hit the rails on the wall, as well as get creative and bust a trick off of any one of the ramps.

A pyramid is a ramp shaped like pyramid at the base with a flat deck on top, unlike a true pyramid. The overall height of the ramp is about two-foot at the deck with two different angled ramps leading up to the deck. The angle depends on where you hit the ramp. Skaters can gain a great deal of speed since the pyramid is in the center of the park's ramp section and catch big air.

Skaters can weave their way through the course to hit rails, or bust air off of ramps, but whatever they choose, it must be done while wearing proper safety equipment. All skaters are required to wear a helmet, wrist guards and kneepads.

The park is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday for teens from 1500 to 1900; Tuesday and Thursday for ages 12 years and younger from 1500 to 1900; Saturday and Sunday from 1000 to 1300 for ages 12 and younger, for teens from 1300 to 1600; and adults from 1600-1900. The cost to skate is $2 a day.

Youth Services offers adults the opportunity to work with youth as volunteer coaches and chaperons for many of the programs and activities.

For more information, call the Youth Center at 533-3205 (3-3205 on post) or 533-3212 (3-3212 on post) during duty hours.

U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca

Fort Huachuca became a Training and Doctrine Command installation in 1990 through the consolidation of the U.S. Army Intelligence Center and School with the U.S. Army Garrison as part of the Base Realignment and Closure Act.

Training and Doctrine Command was formed in 1973 with headquarters at Fort Monroe, Virginia. As a major command, TRADOC has soldiers and civilians serving at installations and activities across the nation. Its primary missions are to prepare the Army today for war on tomorrow's battlefield and to be the architect of the future Army.

The U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca are responsible for Army Intelligence as well as Garrison functions.

U.S. Army Garrison

The U.S. Army Garrison manages the multitude of functions and services that keep the 73,000-acre installation operating so that other organizations on post may concentrate on their primary missions.

The 306th Military Intelligence Battalion, located in Riley Barracks, provides support to the Garrison. The 306th exercises battalion-level command over three companies, the 36th Army Band and the Ceremonial Detachment.

As a city unto itself, the Garrison provides support to Fort Huachuca just as any city government supports its community. For instance, the Garrison provides such services as military and civilian personnel, legal, inspector general, logistical, facilities engineering, fire and safety, intelligence and security, housing, public affairs, resource management, internal audit compliance review and crime prevention/law enforcement. The Garrison also maintains community facilities and provides necessary services for religious, health, welfare and entertainment activities. The Garrison is responsible for maintaining Fort Huachuca's quality of life.

Because Fort Huachuca is the largest and primary Army installation in Arizona, the Garrison supports the Army Reserve and Army National Guard, as well as a number of other military activities throughout the state.

U.S. Army Intelligence Center

In modern warfare, the force that has the fastest, most accurate intelligence will be the victor. The sophistication of today's combat systems will mean almost certain destruction or neutralization of any element that can be located on the battlefield. In this environment, it is essential that the United States be able to find and identify enemy forces and determine their intentions and capabilities quickly and precisely, while denying the enemy similar information. The Army must have the best possible intelligence system.

Providing this system is the mission of the Intelligence Center. With its subordinate elements, it is the originator of the Army's military intelligence structure, the source of all its trained manpower, and the developer and tester of its systems and equipment. The Center is the focal point of the Army's effort to meet its present and future intelligence collection and processing requirements.

Fort Huachuca became the home of Army Intelligence in 1971 when the Intelligence School moved from Fort Holabird, Maryland. Since its inception in 1955, the school's mission has been to train selected personnel and to perform intelligence and security duties in the fields of imagery, interrogation, counterintelligence, area studies and combat intelligence. In 1973, the Intelligence School combined with the combat surveillance portion of the

Combat Surveillance/Electronic Warfare School and the U.S. Army Combat Developments Command Intelligence Agency to form the first true U.S. Army Intelligence Center and School.

This amalgamation added combat surveillance aspects to the school's academic instruction and gave the Center an expanded combat and training development role. On July 1, 1987, the 25th anniversary of the Military Intelligence branch, the MI Corps was activated as part of the U.S. Regimental System at Fort Huachuca.

The headquarters for the Intelligence Center is located in Rodney Hall. From this location, the commandant, who is also the commanding general of the Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca, as well as chief of the MI Corps, directs activities here and at other locations throughout the United States.

The principal functions of the Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca are divided among several organizational elements.

U.S. Army Intelligence Center.

The 305th MI Battalion is also responsible for operating and managing the unique and extremely diversified Libby Army Airfield. The airfield is unique to the US Army because it is used jointly by military activities as well as serving as the civilian airport for the City of Sierra Vista and surrounding communities. As such, military and civilian aircraft share the runways, taxiways, navigation aids and Air Traffic Control facilities. Civilian operations are concentrated on the north side of the airfield and include a passenger terminal for the local commuter airline serving Phoenix International Airport. Military operations are concentrated on the south side of the airfield, accessible from Ft Huachuca from Brainard Rd, Gerstner Rd, and Arizona Street. Airfield facilities and services available to both military and civilian users include crash/rescue, three lighted runways, Air Traffic Control, Approach Radar, and Airport Surveillance Radar. Local Military operations at Libby Army Airfield include the RC-12 SEMA fixed wing military aircraft as well as the HUNTER and SHADOW unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs) assigned to the battalion. The diversification of the airfield comes through the multitude of other permanent and tenant organizations, both military and civilian, that utilize Libby Army Airfield for operations such as: the Army Electronic Proving Ground, the US Air Force, the Arizona National Guard, the US Forest Service, the US Customs Service, and the US Border Patrol to name a few.

Upon receipt of assignment to the 305th MI Battalion, newly assigned personnel are encouraged to visit the 305th MI BN Homepage located on the Ft Huachuca Web page for additional information and points of contact.

U.S. Army Signal Command

The U.S. Army Signal Command, the Army's premier signal force, provides information services vital to the defense of the United States worldwide. ASC provides the support that the warfighting commanders need to win the information war and fight successfully on forward battlefields.

From its headquarters here, ASC directs the activities of about 12,000 soldiers and civilians in more than a dozen countries around the world.

ASC soldiers and civilians establish, operate, protect, sustain, integrate and manage the Army's best communications networks.

Powerful ASC information networks pipe an ever-increasing amount of voice and data messages throughout the world. Video conferencing allows a forward-deployed commander to talk face-to-face with support units in the United States through the convenience of real-time, reach-back, information technology.

These networks keep information flowing and allow soldiers and their leaders to make the split second decisions required on the modern battlefield. Because it is an integrated network operated by one organization and managed from one place by the same organization, it is virtually seamless and very responsive to the needs of the users. ASC soldiers and organizations are ready, willing and able to deploy where needed, when needed, to provide the vital services required to aid the war fighters in the successful execution of their missions.

Operations in Haiti, Somalia, Bosnia, Southwest Asia, E. Timor and Kosovo are fitting examples of the success of Army Signal Command communications. Add to these flood relief in Venezuela and rapid response to other natural disasters and a full picture of the capabilities of ASC becomes apparent.

Regardless of whether the user is an infantry commander in the midst of a war or a federal agency in the midst of a flood or hurricane, ASC provides the required communications seamlessly in the least time possible.

In large part, the success of fighting commanders in operations depends on the acquisition and use of information. The Army Signal Command makes it possible for that information to be acquired and handled quickly and accurately.

The Army Signal Command is a major subordinate command of the U.S. Army Forces Command.

Libby Army Airfield

Libby Army Airfield is unique to the U.S. Army because it is used jointly by military and civilian activities. The runways, taxiways, navigation aids and Air Traffic Control are shared by military and civilian aircraft. Civilian operations are concentrated on the north side of the airfield, accessible directly from Arizona State Route 90. Military operations are concentrated on the south side of the airfield, accessible on Fort Huachuca from Brainard Road, Gerstner Road and Arizona Street. Civilian aviation activities at the airfield are under the auspices of the City of Sierra Vista by agreement with the Department of the Army. Airfield facilities and services available to both military and civilian users include crash/rescue, three lighted runways, Air Traffic Control, Approach Radar, Precision Approach Radar and Airport Surveillance Radar. Available navigational aids are an Instrument Landing system, a Very High Frequency Omni Range and a Non-Directional Beacon. The main runway is equipped with a Visual Approach Slope Indicator and the secondary runway is equipped with a Precision Approach Path Indicator. The RC-12 fixed wing military aircraft is assigned to Libby Army Airfield. The RC-12 is used by the U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca for training Special Electronic Mission Aircraft pilots and crews.

Fort Huachuca is the U.S. Army's test and training center for sophisticated Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) systems that are on the cutting edge of aerial surveillance technology. The UAVs are flown from Libby as well as two UAV runways located approximately four miles west of Libby. These vehicles share the traffic pattern and airspace with military and civilian aircraft. Military and government agencies that are permanently assigned to, or utilize Libby Army Airfield are: The U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca, the Army Electronic Proving Ground, The U.S. Air Force, the Arizona Air National Guard, the Missouri Air National Guard, the U.S. Forest Service and the U.S. Customs Service.

The airfield is operated by the Installation G3. Weather observation and reporting are provided by U.S. Air Force personnel assigned to Operating Location-C, 3rd Weather Squadron. Flight Surgeon support for aviation personnel is provided by the Military Intelligence Community Care Clinic.

U.S. Army Information Systems Engineering Command

The U.S. Army Information Systems Engineering Command (USAISEC) is headquartered in Greely Hall, with the bulk of the organizational elements operating out of the two Communications Management Engineering/Test (CMET) Buildings (53301 and 53302) located nearby.

The Command acts as the Army's lead engineer of information technology, and serves as the Army's integrator and engineer for infrastructure and force projection information systems which support Army major commands and installations worldwide across the wide spectrum of strategic communications systems. USAISEC's technical expertise includes systems engineering, quality assurance and acceptance, hardware and software integration, and product evaluation.

The Command's keynote to provide "Information for Decision" in a completely interoperable and seamless system, all the way from the National Command Authority into the theater/tactical environment, affords soldier and civilian employees of USAISEC frequent opportunities for travel around the world to accomplish professionally challenging missions. The headquarters supports five functionally oriented directorates located at Fort Huachuca, and four engineering field offices at Fort Belvoir, Fort Lee, Fort Detrick, and the Pentagon. Each of these elements draws on the highly educated and trained electronics engineers, communications specialists, computer engineers, computer scientists and specialists, and a variety of skilled support and administrative personnel.

USAISEC ensures that the latest technology meets the Army's stringent standards for interoperability, and that this technology is recommended for use in fielding new systems. USAISEC therefore becomes involved in the planning and installation of specialized information systems throughout the world. The wide scope of programs includes radio and satellite systems, networks (local, campus, and wide area), command centers, desktop computers, information systems in military construction, and includes technologies such as fiber optics, Gigabit Ethernet, ATM, SONET, modeling, simulation and emulation.

USAISEC is subordinate to the Communications-Electronics Command, which is a Major Subordinate Command of the U.S. Army Materiel Command.

Defense Coordination Office-Huachuca

The Defense Coordination Office-Huachuca, a subordinate element of the Defense Information Systems Agency, is the principal organization responsible for provisioning Army long-haul telecommunications requirements worldwide. The office has responsibility for approximately 16,000 long-haul leased telecommunications circuits, e.g., dedicated point-to-point, special purpose, Defense Systems Network, Defense Information Systems Network, Federal Telecommunications System 2000, etc. Maintaining and servicing these accounts requires extensive technical knowledge of the latest state-of-the-art telecommunications services and equipment, e.g., modems, multiplexors, transmission systems, transport systems, computer systems, etc.

The DCO-H is staffed by account managers that perform the technical and administrative responsibilities necessary to provision long-haul requirements for Army users worldwide. There are two divisions – the Non-Switched Systems Division, and the Switched Systems Division at 538-7904 (8-7904 on post).

U.S. Army Electronic Proving Ground

The Electronic Proving Ground (EPG) was established at Fort Huachuca AZ in 1954. EPG is an activity of the White Sands Missile Range and the Army Test and Evaluation Command (ATEC). EPG has field offices at Fort Hood, Texas and Fort Lewis, Washington.

The mission of EPG is to support developers by planning, conducting, and reporting technical tests of new electronic systems. The systems tested include Command, Control, Communications Computers and Intelligence (C4I) systems; Electronic Warfare (EW) systems; Unmanned Aerial Vehicle (UAV) systems; and the Global Positioning System (GPS). EPG provides quality services to developers throughout the acquisition cycle. Early in the testing cycle, EPG answers many questions by modeling and simulation. Developers can address questions concerning frequency assignments, potential electromagnetic compatibility problems and the effect of electronic warfare while the equipment is in the early design stage. Later in the development, extensive measurement capabilities are available to satisfy the developer's data collection needs.

EPG operates a number of C4I test facilities. They include the Electromagnetic Environmental Test Facility (EMETF), Instrumented Test Range (ITR), Antenna Test Facility (ATF), Electromagnetic Interference/Compatibility (EMI/EMC)/TEMPEST Test Facility, Environmental Test Facility (ETF), and the GPS Test Facility. EPG also has a number of test beds to include the Communications Test Bed, the Satellite Test Bed and the Distributed Systems Test Bed.

The EMETF makes extensive use of modeling and simulation to determine the electromagnetic effects of the item being tested on the battlefield environment as well as the effects of the environment on the item being tested. The EMETF includes the Virtual Electronic Proving Ground (VEPG), Virtual Battlefield Environment Facility (VEBF), and the ability to develop and use Order of Battle Databases.

The ITR provides time-space-position information and target signals (Blue, Red and EW) for open-air testing. An extensive network of tracking and surveillance radar and range telemetry allows EPG to operate throughout Southeastern Arizona.

The ATF provides large-scale testing of antennas mounted on platforms as large as the M-1 tank and Army helicopter systems. Testing uses facilities that include the largest existing Compact Range to determine antenna radiation characteristics from high frequency to microwave frequencies.

The EMI/EMC facility offers the ability to determine the effects of new equipment on the battlefield. The importance of this knowledge is becoming increasingly valuable with the increased number of emitters appearing on the battlefield. It is only through this type of testing that the Army can be assured its systems will operate correctly.

The ETF can perform a full range of static and dynamic environmental testing on components and systems, under both operating and non-operating conditions. Testing includes temperature, humidity, salt fog, altitude, leak testing, fungus, vibration, sand/dust, solar radiation, and explosive atmosphere.

The GPS facility has the capability to do a full range of testing on GPS units using either a suite of satellite simulators or the actual deployed satellites. The test bed is part of the commercial GPS receiver test program and performs tests for both Government and private industry.

The EPG test beds offer the ability to test specific pieces of equipment/systems in environments varying from bench test to operation in a field type environment. The test beds will allow pre-test checkout of equipment and will enable the developer to ensure the test system is ready to meet the challenges faced during formal test programs.

The EPG field offices at Fort Hood and Fort Lewis provide support to the digitization of the Army efforts. These offices support testing at the Fort Hood Central Test Support Facility and at field exercises (tests, training, or experiments) that requires the use of simulation-driven battlefield computer systems.

EPG maintains a meteorological support capability that provides weather information to the test process services to include climatology solar activity, weather forecast, and consulting services.

EPG continues to develop and update its C4I test capabilities. The EPG instrumentation program provides the research and development base to acquire improved test capabilities in support of the test mission. Efforts include requirement analysis, development of digital data collection/stimulation equipment and the development of state-of-the-art software techniques. Program emphasis is on the application of simulation and automation technologies to develop a virtual electronic test capability.

EPG's area of operation includes public and private lands in and around Fort Huachuca as well as lands available at other Government installations. The advantages of testing at Fort Huachuca include an ideal physical and electromagnetic environment and the ability to test virtually all year. For additional information see our web site at www.epg.army.mil/epg.

US Army Communications-Electronics Command Communications Security Logistics Activity

The US Army CECOM Communications Security Logistics Activity (CSLA) is an activity of the CECOM Logistics and Readiness Center, one of three major centers in the US Army Communications-Electronics Command headquartered at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey.

CSLA is the Army Wholesale Commodity Manager of Information Systems Security (INFOSEC) and Communications Security (COMSEC) Equipment and Materiel. CSLA develops the Army's Information Systems Security Program (ISSP) that identifies all COMSEC/INFOSEC requirements in Army. CSLA is responsible for the acquisition, distribution and logistics support to all field users of INFOSEC/COMSEC and Information Assurance (IA) equipment and encryption materiel. CSLA provides the warfighter with procurement, training, logistics and sustainment management support for Information Security/Information Assurance and related emerging technologies.

CSLA directs the management of all INFOSEC/COMSEC materiel through the Army's COMSEC National Inventory Control Point (NICP) at Fort Huachuca and Army's COMSEC Depot located at Tobyhanna, PA. CSLA serves as the principal Army INFOSEC/COMSEC logistics point of contact for the National Security Agency (NSA). CSLA is responsible for Army-wide INFOSEC/COMSEC New Equipment Training (NET) and customer support through a network of CSLA INFOSEC Representatives stationed in Germany, Korea, Fort Bragg, Fort Hood and Fort Lewis. CSLA has the oversight responsibility of managing all of Army's COMSEC accounts through the Army COMSEC Central Office of Record (ACCOR). Through risk assessments, CSLA conducts inspections and provides approval of COMSEC facilities; conducts auditing of all Army COMSEC accounts throughout the world; and monitors incidents for all COMSEC material which includes Controlled Cryptographic Items (CCI).

CSLA is the HQ DA DISC4 Executive Agent for centralized management of the Army's COMSEC, INFOSEC, IA Programs and the Electronic Key Management System (EKMS) Tier 1. CSLA is the host activity for tri-service detachments (Army, Navy, and Air Force), that support Joint COMSEC Key Management throughout the military. CSLA is responsible for planning, managing, fielding and supporting INFOSEC/COMSEC products and procedures throughout the Army; establishing the EKMS Tier 1 at Fort Huachuca, AZ, and extension sites at Tobyhanna Army Depot in Pennsylvania, and in Mannheim, Germany and project management for the Key Management Infrastructure (KMI). CSLA works closely with the DA staff and NSA on INFOSEC/COMSEC and IA policies and requirements. CSLA plays a key role in developing INFOSEC for the digitized battlefield and Force XXI. CSLA supports COMSEC accounts and property book accounts at Active Army, Army National Guard, and Army Reserves Units. CSLA also supports other services and agencies worldwide on an as needed basis.

Biometrics is a new mission CSLA supports, by providing integrated logistics support (ILS) and Contracting Officer Representative support for the DoD Biometrics Management Office (BMO) and the DoD Biometrics Fusion Center (BFC). CSLA is the Center of Excellence for COMSEC and INFOSEC programs and systems.

Joint Interoperability Test Command

The Joint Interoperability Test Command (JITC) is a field command of the Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA). JITC's primary mission is to be the command, control, communications, computer and intelligence (C4I) Joint and Combined Interoperability certification authority for DoD, to provide interoperability technical support and assessments to the CINCs/Services/Agencies (C/S/A) and to be the Operational Test Agency (OTA) for DISA.

JITC was established in its current role October 16, 1988 as a field element of the former Defense Communications Agency (DCA), which later became DISA. In February 1992, JITC was designated a member of DoD's Major Range and Test Facility Base (MRTFB) to provide test and evaluation services to all of DoD, other federal agencies, state and local governments, and private industry.

JITC is the sole joint and combined interoperability certification authority for DoD. Certification is required on all DoD C4I systems with joint or combined interfaces prior to fielding to the warfighter.

JITC provides independent operational test and evaluation (OT&E) and assessments of DISA programs to ensure that only operationally effective and suitable C4I systems are delivered to the warfighter. These DISA programs include Global Command and Control System (GCCS), Defense Information Systems Network (DISN), and Defense Message System (DMS). JITC also serves as the OTA for the Defense

11th Signal Brigade.

Logistics Agency (DLA), Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS), and High Performance Computing Modernization Program (HPCMP).

JITC is dedicated to supporting the war fighters in the goal of C4I joint and combined interoperability and often works in-theater to provide technical support and operational assessments to the CINCs during exercises and contingencies. JITC provides 24 hour, on demand technical interoperability support to the C/S/A via the JITC hotline at 1-800-LET-JITC.

JITC is located along Brainard Road near Libby Army Airfield. JITC has a one-of-a-kind array of hardware, software, and expertise spread over 14 separate testbeds and labs. The command can interface all its on-site capabilities and network with any other testing or operational facility worldwide. The JITC can be contacted by calling (520)538-5482 (8-5482 on post) or 1-800-LET-JITC.

JITC is made up of military personnel from all four Services providing operational expertise and Civil Service providing technical expertise. This unique mix of government personnel, supported by contractors allows JITC the flexibility to meet growing interoperability demands.

11TH SIGNAL BRIGADE

The 11th Signal Brigade is the Army's force projection signal brigade. It is a major subordinate command of the U.S. Army Signal Command with the mission of providing contingency command and control communications in support of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Department of the Army, or U.S. Army Signal Command requirements worldwide.

Known as the Thunderbirds, the brigade's soldiers at Fort Huachuca serve either in the unit's Headquarters and Headquarters Company or the 40th, 86th, or 504th Signal Battalion.

The brigade also has another battalion, the 54th, which is permanently stationed throughout Southwest Asia. The brigade has the capability to install, operate, and maintain a tactical communications network to support either joint or Army organizations, establish command center communications nodes, area signal centers, and small extension nodes.

Due to its total communications capabilities, the brigade can support the full spectrum of operations to include combat, peacekeeping, and humanitarian missions. Since 1990, the brigade has participated in numerous contingency operations. The entire brigade (less two companies that remained to execute other contingency missions) took part in Operation Desert Shield/Storm. At the height of that operation, the brigade controlled more than five signal battalions and operated the largest echelons above corps tactical communications network ever, consisting of 88 separate communications links. For its service during these operations, the brigade was awarded the Department of the Army Meritorious Unit Commendation.

The brigade also took part in Operation Restore Hope and Continue Hope in Somalia from December 1992 to March 1994; Operation Intrinsic Action/Southern Watch in Kuwait from August to October 1992; and Operation Uphold Democracy in Haiti from September 1994 to March 1996. In 1998, approximately 175 Thunderbird soldiers deployed to Southwest Asia in support of Operation Desert Thunder. Soldiers from the brigade returned to Southwest Asia in support of Operations Desert Thunder II and Desert Fox in late 1998 and 1999.

Brigade soldiers have also supported operations in Korea, Guantanamo Naval Base, Cuba, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain and Honduras. They have provided support to Army installations in Washington, California, Texas, Arkansas, Indiana, Oklahoma, and Wisconsin. And, they have participated in training exercise in Kuwait, and Egypt, as well as throughout the United States in Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, California, Nevada, Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, Florida, Louisiana, and Massachusetts.

The principal communications capabilities of the unit include tactical satellite, tropospheric scatter, super high frequency and ultra high frequency line-of-sight radios, Tri-Band communications terminals, cable transmission systems, and voice, message, and data switches. The brigade's communications networks are compatible with the mobile subscriber equipment communications networks found at corps and division level.

Thunderbird soldiers find their time here challenging and demanding. Because the brigade has many different types of signal equipment, it provides unique opportunities for soldiers to participate in major field exercises and contingency operations.

United States Army Operational Test Command Intelligence Electronic Warfare Test Directorate

The Intelligence Electronic Warfare Test Directorate (IEWTD), formerly the Intelligence and Security Board, was activated at Fort Huachuca in March 1977. The organization is a subordinate command of the United States Army Operational Test Command (USAOTC) located at Fort Hood, Texas.

IEWTD's primary missions are to conduct operational tests on intelligence and electronic warfare systems that are developed or procured for use by the Army and to examine the effectiveness of new organizational and doctrinal concepts developed by the Intelligence Center. Additionally, the directorate conducts worldwide operational assessments in support of the Ballistic Missile Defense Office, and it plays an important role in the material acquisition process for the Army and the Joint Services.

Most testing conducted by IEWTD is performed at Fort Huachuca to take advantage of existing range facilities, ideal climatic conditions, and the available electromagnetic environment, but, based on mission need, IEWTD is frequently called upon to conduct and participate in tests throughout the world.

IEWTD is located on Irwin Street, Hayes Hall, Building 80706. The telephone numbers are 538-8813/8814, or visit the website at <http://texcomwww.army.mil/iewtd/index.htm>.

Fort Huachuca Resident Agency

The Fort Huachuca Resident Agency, 6th Military Police Group (Criminal Investigation Division), U.S. Army Criminal Investigation Command, investigates felony-level crimes and provides investigative support for all U.S. Army elements in Arizona. The resident agency also maintains liaison with federal, state and local law enforcement agencies concerning matters of criminal investigation in which the Army has a vested interest.

The local resident agency is in Building 41416 on Christy Avenue. Its CID special agents may be reached at 533-5202 or 533-5203 (3-5202 or 3-5203 on post). They may also be reached through the Military Police Desk at 533-2181 or 533-2182 (3-2181 or 3-2182 on post).

U.S. Army Test Measurement and Diagnostic Equipment Support Center

The U.S. Army Test Measurement and Diagnostic Equipment (TMDE) Support Center provides one-stop calibration and repair of general purpose and selected special purpose TMDE. It was established in 1982 as a detachment of the U.S. Army TMDE Activity, Redstone Arsenal, Alabama.

The center supports more than 170 customers including all units and organizations on post, the Arizona National Guard, and U.S. Army Reserve units in Arizona. These customers hold more than 10,000 items of TMDE.

For more information on the TMDE Support Center, call 538-6535 (8-6535 on post).

Ceremonial Units and Activities

Fort Huachuca's ceremonial units consist of the 36th Army Band, Honor Guard and B Troop, 4th Regiment, U.S. Cavalry (Memorial). They participate in military ceremonies and promote U.S. Army heritage and tradition. Additionally, they support civic organizations and functions throughout the southwestern United States to strengthen Army community relations and stimulate recruiting.

B Troop, 4th Regiment, U.S. Cavalry (Memorial)

The glamour and excitement of charging cavalry is only part of the reason Fort Huachuca's B Troop, 4th Regiment, U.S. Cavalry (Memorial) is the most popular unit of its kind in Arizona.

Formed in mid-1973 to keep alive the heritage and flavor of Fort Huachuca's cavalry beginnings, the troop originally was only a post ceremonial unit. Today, the members regularly attend civilian events and appear off post more often than on.

Mounted on McClellan saddles and dressed in the Army blue and gold or field garb of the 1880s – complete with sabers and carbines – the soldiers of the troop have appeared throughout the southwest. The number of appearances grows constantly, as does the number of requests. The troop has appeared in numerous Tournament of Roses Parades, centennial statehood celebrations in Montana and Wyoming, and the Holiday Bowl Parade, just to name a few.

Under its official name, B Troop, 4th Regiment, U.S. Cavalry (Memorial), the group honors a unit that served at Fort Huachuca during the 1880s. The troop has about 20 active volunteer members and many more auxiliary and associate members. Its role is the largest of all memorial military cavalry units to be found both in Arizona and the U.S. Army.

The work of the troop may appear romantic, but it is far from dreamy. In fact, for the more avid members, B Troop is practically a second full-time job, considering that most appearances are on weekends. Many hours of preparation are spent behind the scenes for every performance. But the troopers volunteer their time freely and display the confident care, esprit and pride that come from being in the horse cavalry and knowing they are a U.S. Army and Fort Huachuca showcase unit.

For additional information on the unit, call 533-2619 (3-2619 on post).

Post Honor Guard

The Post Honor Guard is an element of the Ceremonial Detachment. It participates in ceremonial functions that take place on Fort Huachuca and throughout the southwestern United States. In addition to their primary mission of rendering funeral honors for active duty soldiers, retirees, and veterans, personnel assigned to the unit raise and lower the national colors on Brown Parade Field and at Greely Hall each day, present the colors at various parades and activities, and render honors with the salute battery on appropriate occasions.

The Honor Guard is assigned to Headquarters Company, 306th Military Intelligence Battalion, and is comprised of military members from the 111th MI Brigade, Electronic Proving Ground, 11th Signal Brigade, 504th Signal Battalion, and 306th MI Battalion. Soldiers interested in serving with the Honor Guard may call 533-3343 (3-3343 on post) for more information.

36th Army Band

In its daily activities, the 36th Army Band demonstrates that it is "more than just a marching band." Comprised of approximately 40 multitasking soldiers, the 36th Army Band fields a Concert Band, Ceremonial Band, the Showband of the Southwest, Dixieland Band, Brass and Woodwind Quintets, dinner music combos and even vocal soloists and ensembles.

In fulfilling its primary mission, the 36th Army Band is not only on call to support the military ceremonies of Fort Huachuca, but those of military installations throughout the southwest. Supporting military ceremonies, however, just scratches the surface of the 36th Army Band's responsibilities.

Probably the most visible unit to the public from Fort Huachuca, the band logs tens of thousands of miles in travel representing the post throughout the southwestern United States.

Locally, the 36th Army Band has won a special place in the hearts of local citizens by actively supporting the many community events and holidays in Cochise, Pima and Santa Cruz counties. Further away from the post, the band supports district recruiting offices in Nevada, California and Utah, as well as the recruiting requirements throughout Arizona. This support consists of performing in parades, conducting public concerts and conducting concerts and music clinics for high school students.

In addition to the musical requirements, band personnel must demonstrate knowledge of military topics, complete common task testing, take physical training tests and meet weapons qualification requirements just like any other soldier.

RECREATION

The Rolling Thunder Skate Park opened on post and provides fun and entertainment for everyone.

“There were no moving pictures in the early days, and the only amusement the soldiers had on the post, they created themselves. We usually had Saturday night dances; and out near Fry there was a resort which had about everything a soldier seeks when he goes on pass. Game was plentiful and hunting was good.”

— Captain Vance Marchbanks, in 1905

Hunting and Fishing

There are some 500 species of mammals, birds, fish and reptiles in the Huachuca Mountains.

This area is a bird watcher's haven. Of all the species of birds breeding in North America, nearly half are represented here.

An Arizona hunting license and a post hunting permit are required for anyone carrying a privately owned firearm in the field for any purpose. Arizona general hunting licenses are available at most sporting goods stores at a cost of $25.50 for residents and 113.50 for non-residents. To qualify as a resident, an individual must reside in Arizona for six months immediately preceding the date of application for a license, or be a member of the Armed Forces stationed in Arizona for at least 30 days immediately preceding the date of application. Post hunting and fishing permits are issued by the Sportsman's Center, Wednesdays through Sundays for $10 each or $15 for a combination license.

Mule deer, white-tailed deer and javelina are some of the big game species hunted at Fort Huachuca. Bird hunters have their choice among three species of quail and two of dove. Special seasons and hunting areas exist for the bow hunter. Mountain lion can be hunted year round with a lion tag. No trapping is allowed on the post.

The taking of any species of bird, reptile or mammal at Fort Huachuca not specifically authorized by command directive is prohibited. Gila monsters are protected in Arizona, and the destruction of non-venomous reptiles is discouraged. Three species of rattlesnake are protected: the Ridge-nosed, the Banded Rock and the Twin-spotted.

Hunting is authorized according to seasons and bag limits established by the Arizona Game and Fish Commission. Hunters are required to sign out with the Military Police Desk for hunting. Active duty and retired military and their family members are authorized to hunt and fish on post. Fort Huachuca DoD civilian employees and their family members are also allowed to hunt on post. Fishing is open to the general public. All hunters must have completed a certified hunter education course before hunting on post. This course is not mandatory for off-post hunting. All hunters and fishermen must be properly licensed by the Arizona Game and Fish Department. A combination State hunting and fishing license is $34 for Arizona residents and $100 for non-residents.

LOCAL COMMUNITIES

“Outside the gate was a small Mexican village which consisted, in those days, of about twelve Buildings, one of which was the Building that made adobe bricks for other huts. Another one was a saloon which was closed on account of prohibition.... Then there was a grocery store and...a few residences for the people who operated these Buildings.”

—Colonel Paul J. Matte, in 1927

The Grand Canyon State offers a variety of terrain and climate... from the vast desert stretches of Yuma to the San Francisco Mountains and aspen forests of northern Arizona to the wonder of man-made Lake Meade.

The wealth of beauty in Arizona is something to be experienced. The narratives that follow describe some of the nearby areas of the state that personnel assigned to Fort Huachuca are likely to visit during their stay. By no means is the list complete.

Sierra Vista

Adjacent to the post, Sierra Vista, at an elevation of 4,625 feet, boasts a spectacular view of the surrounding mountain ranges. The town is known for its ideal weather with an average maximum of 75 and minimum of 50 degrees. With a population of more than 37,000, it is one of the fastest growing communities in Arizona and is the business and cultural center of Cochise County.

Sierra Vista was incorporated in 1956 so, being fairly new, it is one of the most modern and vibrant cities in the Southwest. Fort Huachuca was annexed by Sierra Vista in 1972 and the military and civilian communities enjoy one of the most cordial relationships of this kind in the entire United States.

The city's school district enjoys an excellent reputation in the education community and the new Buena High School is a state-of-the-art facility. Higher education is available through Cochise Community College and the University of Arizona Sierra Vista Campus. Chapman University also offers courses in a variety of fields.

Sierra Vista is the shopping center for Cochise County and parts of northern Mexico. Several shopping plazas thrive and most major retailers are represented. Large, well stocked super markets and pharmacies along with dozens of smaller specialty shops abound. The food service industry is well represented and fine dining is available throughout the area. Entertainment and information are also in evidence with first run movies, cable television, local AM and FM radio broadcasts and daily newspaper.

A wide variety of cultural and family oriented activities are offered during the year. The Winter Arts Festival and Art Discovery Series present a continuing program of plays, concerts, musicals, dances, recitals and readings. Other events throughout the year include the Arizona Junior Rodeo, Mule Mountain Marathon, Huachuca Stampede Rodeo, Miss Sierra Vista Pageant, Art in the Park Arts and Crafts Sale, Festival of Color Hot Air Balloon Rally, Family Festival, and the largest Christmas parade in the state of Arizona.

"Hummingbird Capital of the United States" is another name for Sierra Vista. In nearby Ramsey Canyon, fourteen species of hummingbirds and hundreds of other birds, mammals, reptiles and plants may be observed and photographed. Within an easy drive are the hiking trails and breathtaking scenery of the Coronado Memorial in the Huachuca Mountains, Cochise Stronghold in the Dragoon Mountains, Chiricahua National Monument, and beautiful Madera Canyon in Santa Cruz County.

Huachuca City

Huachuca City is a community located just north of Fort Huachuca. The town began to develop with the reopening of Fort Huachuca in 1954 and was then known as Huachuca Vista. The town was incorporated in 1958 under the name of Huachuca City. Currently, it has a population of approximately 2,000.

The city has a mayor-council form of government and provides the residents with local police and fire protection. Huachuca City has one elementary school with kindergarten through eighth grade. High school students attend classes in Tombstone.

Spectacular views from nearby Carr Canyon (Coronado National Forest).

Birding is a popular pastime along the San Pedro River (Bureau of Land Management).

Housing available in the area consists of single-family dwellings, apartments and mobile homes. Residents are about 10 to 20 minutes driving time from the post.

Huachuca City's business district consists of retail businesses, restaurants and industrial properties.

Benson

Benson and the San Pedro River Valley are rich in natural wonders and provide a home for deer, javelina, reptiles and many other animals, including more than 500 species of birds. In the surrounding mountains and oasis-like San Pedro Riparian areas, are a treasure-trove of hiking trails for the rock-hound, bird watcher, camper, historian or nature lover. The area boasts a beautiful temperate climate year round, making it a perfect vacation spot.

The valley is also attractive to industry. Dubbed the transportation "hub" of Cochise County, there is easy access to major highways, rail transit and airports. The San Pedro & Southwestern Railway recently restored a portion of track from Benson to Douglas for excursions as well as freight transit. The route winds through the pristine San Pedro Riparian National Conservation Area, ghost towns and flourishing tourist communities.

Although Benson was founded in 1880, civilization in the valley began long before. The Spanish mission-ary, Father Eusigio Kino, established missions in the late 1600's bringing Christianity and agriculture to the resident Pima Indians. The Pima shared the land with the hostile Chiricahua Apache, who eventually gained control of the area. The U.S. Army waged a difficult campaign against the Chiricahua to protect the homesteaders that began to make their way to the new territory. It was during this time the Mormons settled in St. David, the Butterfield Stage was founded, and the indian legends of Cochise and Geronimo were born. As the dust of the Butterfield Overland Stage Coach and Pony Express cleared, Benson matured into a bustling rail-road town. In 1880 the Transcontinental Southern Pacific Railroad opened the way for two more major rail lines. Its lifeblood was the copper and silver flowing from the neighboring mining communities of Tombstone, Fairbank and Bisbee.

Bisbee

Nestled in the foothills of the Mule Mountains of southeast Arizona, Bisbee resembles a European hamlet more than a dusty 1880's Old West town. Originally called "The Queen of the Copper Camps," Bisbee has a rich history which grew out of its humble beginnings as a mining camp turned boom town in the 1880's. In 1900, it was the largest city between St. Louis and San Francisco. Bisbee was rebuilt in 1908 after being destroyed by fire, and its homes and the downtown area still hold a Victorian charm.

Bisbee today is rich in architecture and culture, with its numerous art galleries, antique stores, gourmet restaurants, crafts shops, museums, and period Bed and Breakfast accommodations as well as hotels. The Queen Mine Tour attracts thousands of visitors each year who ride down into the old tunnels in a string of mining cars. Events and cultural activities include musical presentations from street dances to a professional classical music series, a major national poetry festival, several art openings each month, a fiber arts festival, performances by several local theater groups and a nationally recognized annual weekend bicycle race.

Visitors can also enjoy hiking the surrounding area in the cool mile-high mountain air.

Tombstone, "The Town Too Tough to Die."

Douglas

Douglas, located on the U.S.-Mexico border, was founded in 1901 as a site for a copper smelter and was incorporated in 1905. The townsite was originally an annual round-up spot for ranches. Agriculture and ranching are still important segments of the area's principal economy.

Because of its location, international commerce is an important part of the local economy. Douglas has 15 manufacturing plants and Agua Prieta, Mexico, just across the border, has 26, many of the latter operating under the twin-plan concept.

The historic Gadsden Hotel, a frontier landmark since 1907, is one of the more popular attractions in the city. Visitors also frequent the Cochise County Historical and Archaeological Society Museum.

The lure of shopping and sightseeing in "Old Mexico," plus nearness to several outdoor recreation areas, have made tourism and retirement significant to Douglas' economy. Brief visits to Agua Prieta do not require visas or special documents.

The city has seven elementary schools, two junior high schools a high school, a private elementary school and Christian school; along with Cochise College (Douglas Campus).

Nogales

Nogales, Arizona, and Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, are twin cities separated only by a fence. The two cities are located about 65 miles southwest of Fort Huachuca.

Nogales, Mexico, is a shopping paradise, with a host of colorful markets and shops featuring leather goods, ceramics, tinware, fabrics, lacquered wood, tile, silverware, sculpture and paintings, and brass and copper.

But Nogales, Mexico, is more than just a village of markets and shops. It is a city of about 250,000 people, many of whom are engaged in handling the international commerce that flows in both directions through the gates separating the United States and Mexico. Nogales Arizona, has a population of 19,990.

There are many famous ranches in Nogales on both sides of the border.

Some are still owned by families of the Spanish dons who came to the new world with the Conquistadores. In the hills are fine riding and hiking trails and good hunting areas. A popular attraction in Nogales, Arizona, is the Primeria Alta historical museum in the original Nogales City Hall Building, located downtown.

Tombstone

Perhaps one of the best known and most popular attractions in this area is just a 25-minute drive from Fort Huachuca on Charleston Road. It is Tombstone—"The Town Too Tough To Die."

Fort Huachuca figured into its founding since it was from there that young Ed Schieffelin set out in the late 1800s to find silver in the San Pedro Hills. He was told by soldiers at the post that all he would find would be his tombstone because of the constant danger of hostile Apaches.

So, when Schieffelin made his first strike in 1877, he named the claim Tombstone.

News of his silver strike spread and quickly brought prospectors, miners, businessmen, fortune hunters, lawmen and the lawless until the population of Tombstone reached 12,000 to 15,000 in 1881. Today, its population is 1,800.

Surging waters in the mines ended the boom in the late 1890s, but not before names like Virgil and Wyatt Earp, Doc Holliday, the OK Corral and the Clanton Gang were household words throughout the nation.

The Tombstone of today is still fascinating to visit, with many of the fabled places, such as the OK Corral, Bird Cage Theater, Crystal Palace Saloon and Boot Hill Cemetery, much as they were in the heyday of the town.

Tumacacori National Monument.

Those wild days of the 1880s are recreated each year with the exciting three-day celebrations: Wyatt Earp Days, Memorial Day weekend; Rendezvous of gunfighters, Labor Day weekend; and Helderado Days, the third Friday weekend in October.

For information on events in Tombstone, call the visitor's center at (520) 457-3929.

Davis-Monthan Air Force Base

Davis-Monthan Air Force Base is a key Air Combat Command installation, located within the city limits of Tucson, Arizona. The 355th Wing, the host unit, provides medical, logistical and operational support to all D-M units. The wing's missions are to train A/OA-10 pilots and provide A/OA-10 close air support and forward air control. The wing is also tasked to provide command, control, and communications countermeasures with its EC-130-H aircraft and, employing the EC-130 aircraft, provide airborne command, control and communications.

Approximately 6,000 military and 1,700 civilian employees work at Davis-Monthan.

Two major air commands, the Air Reserve and the Air National Guard are represented by associate units at D-M. Twelfth Air Force is charged with commanding, administering, and supervision tactical forces west of the Mississippi River. As one of ACC's numbered air forces, 12th AF operates combat-ready forces and equipment for air superiority working with U.S. and allied forces.

The Aerospace Maintenance and Regeneration Center, an Air Force Material Command unit, is responsible for the storage of more than 4,900 excess Department of Defense and Coast Guard aircraft.

The 305th Rescue Squadron, an Air Force Reserve unit, flies the HH-60G helicopter, with a primary mission of search and rescue. Detachment 1, 120th Fighter Interceptor Group, an Air National Guard unit, flies the F-16 "Fighting Falcon." These aircraft can "scramble" in less than five minutes to identify and intercept any airborne threat to U.S. security.

Other federal agencies using the base include the Federal Aviation Administration, the U.S. Customs Service Air Service Branch, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and a detachment of Naval Air Systems Command.

Tucson

Tucson, just 75 miles to the northwest, and an hour-and-half away by car, is a modern, progressive city—yet it retains the culture and flavor of the Old West.

With a history dating back to Indian settlers in 800 A.D., and later the Spanish Conquistadores, Tucson was established as a walled presidio by the Spanish in 1776—the year the American colonies declared their independence from England.

The city did not become part of the United States, however, until 1853, following the Gadsden Purchase.

Tucson is located in a desert valley surrounded by mountain ranges on all sides, with an elevation varying from 2,400 feet in the Tucson Valley, to more than 9,000 feet atop Mount Lemmon.

Renowned for its superb weather and described as "one of the most rapidly growing communities in the nation today," Tucson is the second largest city in Arizona, with a population of approximately 712,600. The city offers varied entertainment, recreational facilities, spectator sports and social and cultural events throughout the year.

Tucson is also the home of the University of Arizona. With an enrollment of more than 35,000 students, the university is organized into 112 academic subdivisions and departments, and 33 divisions of research and special service. It offers bachelors degrees in 142 fields of study, masters degrees in 140, and doctorates in 97. It is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and is a member of the Pacific 10 Conference.

CALL PICKUP-Allows you to answer incoming calls to another telephone in your office. (The ringing station must be a member of your call pickup group before you can answer the incoming call.)

CONFERENCE CALLING-This feature will allow you to initiate a conference call for up to six parties.

TELEPHONE TRUNK ACCESS

1. Trunks are the communication channel or common path for communication traffic between switching equipment associated with private branch exchange (PBX) telephone systems and the world. They provide the path to transmit switched data or voice communications from one location to another.
2. With the advent of digital switching and single-line phones, many trunk classes of service are available but not offered on all telephones.
  - a. A rapid busy signal or announcement after dialing an access code means that
    - (1) The telephone is not equipped with this service. Place the call from a telephone with the proper access. A Telephone Control Officer can assist with identifying a telephone's access.
    - (2) All trunks are busy. Place the call later.
  - b. Do not call an operator for assistance if you receive a rapid busy signal. Operators are not permitted to dial an access code not available to your telephone. Trunks that are busy to you will also be busy to the operator.
  - c. Operators will assist with problematic calls; for example, when you normally have access but get no ring, static recording, etc. The operator will either help you report your telephone and then try to assist you or try the call and request you report your telephone problem as soon as possible.

LONG DISTANCE CALLS

1. Long distance calls require authorization. They will be recorded on DA Form 360 (Report of Authorized Official Toll Calls). These forms will be maintained by the Telephone Control Officer in current files (file number 251v) for 1 year to verify billings.
2. Personal long distance calls will not be charged to the U.S. Government. Toll charges for unofficial or unauthorized calls will be collected from the individual making the call. (See the section on Telephone Control Officer (TCO) numbers and billing verifications.)

JOINT UNIFORM TELEPHONE COMMUNICATIONS PRECEDENCE SYSTEM

This system establishes precedence levels for communications. All DSN users will select the precedence level that applies to the subject of the call when making operator-assisted calls or using telephones with precedence features. (See Part 11, DSN Information, for examples of use.)

GLOBAL ACCESS

Local service requests for access to Global Service Access must be approved by the commander or director of the requesting organization and appropriate Secretary of the General Staff (SGS) or Executive Officer (XO). Requests will be submitted to the Directorate of Information Management (DOIM), ATTN: ATZS-IM for approval.

MINIMIZE

1. Reduction and Control of Information Transfer in an Emergency, known as MINIMIZE, is a procedure used during periods of crisis or other abnormal periods to reduce the volume of nonessential information transmitted electronically. This action is required for prompt transmission of essential traffic. MINIMIZE applies to all users of Department of Defense (DOD) communications systems. Procedures for MINIMIZE are in AR 25-10, Reduction and Control of Information Transfer in an Emergency (MINIMIZE).
2. The Joint Chiefs of Staff or the command concerned will transmit the notification of MINIMIZE. When MINIMIZE is imposed, users of DOD electrical communications facilities must determine that the information needs to be electronically transmitted to avoid a serious, adverse impact on mission accomplishment or safety of life and the addressee would not receive the information in time to achieve its purpose by other methods.

OPERATOR COURTESY

Telephone operators are instructed to be uniformly courteous and respectful. Similar action by the subscriber is an incentive to superior service. Do not reprimand or converse with operators. Direct problems or complaints to the Chief Operator, extension 8-7000.

DIRECTORY SERVICE

1. The telephone directory is maintained by the DOIM. Report any changes to your TCO.
2. Information on changes of telephone numbers should be promptly disseminated throughout the installation. Submit changes by memorandum to Commander, U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca, ATTN: ATZSIMC-SP for publication in the Weekly Bulletin. Include a diskette (which will be returned). Weekly Bulletin items can be submitted by electronic mail to weeklyb@huachuca-emhl.army.mil.
3. Additional copies of this directory are available from the Publications Warehouse, building 31013, extension 33056. Submit requests for directories on a DA Form 17 (Requisition for Publications and Blank Forms). The directory is available to all users of the post telephone system. Requests from outside elements and private individuals must be submitted under the Freedom of Information Act to Commander, U.S. Army Intelligence Center and Fort Huachuca, ATTN: ATZS-IMC-SR.
4. Cochise County telephone directories are issued by the DOIM when they are received, usually in the fall. Copies of the Tucson and Phoenix telephone directories may be purchased from U.S. West Direct by credit card. For information on directories for other areas, call 1-800-422-8793.

SYSTEMS AND EQUIPMENT

1. Key systems and equipment must be programmed, budgeted, and funded by users. All requests for key systems will be scrutinized to determine whether they are mission essential. An economic analysis will be performed by the DOW Information Operations Division. Requirements for the installation of a key system or equipment must be submitted through appropriate channels to the DOIM, ATTN: ATZS-IMP, as an Information Capability Request (CAPR).

2. Telephone answering devices, specialty devices, and equipment will not be connected to the local telephone system without complete justification by the user in a CAPR. Requests must be validated as mission-essential by the user's commander or director and approved and certified for use on the telephone system by the DOIM. The DOW ensures the technical compatibility of such devices with the communications systems. Such specialty items are obtained as Tier III (property book items) and are funded, operated, and maintained with funds available to the user.

CLASSES OF SERVICE

1. Official Telephone Service. Official Government telephone service includes classes A, C, and D. Explanations of these services are as follows:
  - a. Class A telephone service is authorized for the transaction of official business when access to commercial long distance or Government-owned telephone trunks is required. Class A service is divided as follows:
    - (1) Class A1, provided to conduct official business with direct access to the DSN, commercial, Federal Telephone System (FTS), and Arizona services. Access codes 99, 98, 97, and 96.
    - (2) Class A2, provided to conduct official business with direct access to the DSN and commercial services. Access codes 99 and 98.
    - (3) Class A3, provided to conduct official business confined to intra-PBX and local commercial service. Restricted from DSN, toll, commercial, and FTS services. Access code 99.
    - (4) Class AA1, Global Service Access, requires the approval of the appropriate SGS/XO.
  - b. Class C telephone service (official restricted) is authorized for the transmission of official Government business throughout the Army installation. This service is restricted from access to local commercial, FTS, DSN, and commercial long distance services.
  - c. Class D telephone service (official special) is installed as required throughout an Army installation for special types of services; for example, fire, guard, and crash alarm services.
2. Unofficial Telephone Service (Class B). Class B telephone service is not available when services from a commercial telephone company can be offered. Unofficial telephone service when offered is for use by military housing occupants and other unofficial subscribers. Class B service would be provided on a reimbursable basis.

PROBLEM REPORTING FOR DOIM-SUPPORTED SERVICES

1. The DOIM maintains a centralized Customer Assistance Team to provide support for repair and assistance of automation and communications resources. For assistance with a problem, call the Customer Assistance Team at extension 3-1111 and provide the following information:
  - a. Has the problem been reported previously? If so, provide the control number given to you at the time of your initial call.
  - b. What type of problem is it? Is it in one of the categories below (if so, provide applicable information), or does it fall into another category, such as communications lines, cable television, etc.?

- (1) Telephone problem. Provide your name, organization, working telephone number, building and room number, description of the problem, and nonworking telephone number. If the telephone is a Secure Telephone Unit (STU), call it in to the 304th Military Intelligence Battalion, extension 3-6604; and be sure to identify it as a STU.
  - (2) Office automation software problem. Provide your name, organization, telephone number, building and room number, description of the problem, model number, and serial number. If the equipment is still under warranty, please identify the equipment as such.
  - (3) DSN problem. Provide your name, phone number from which call was placed, DSN number and location of the called party, time the trouble occurred, and a description of the problem.
  - (4) Local area network problem. Provide your name, organization telephone number, building and room number, and a description of the problem.
  - (5) Electronic mail (E-Mail) problem. Provide your name, organization, telephone number, building and room number, host name, E-Mail box ID, user ID, and description of the problem. (Is the problem local or with the Defense Information Systems Network (DISN))?
2. The Customer Assistance Team will notify the proper technical staff or vendor to respond to the problem. Users are prohibited from calling vendors. If the DOIM does not provide the service, the Customer Assistance Team will provide the name and telephone number of the organization that can respond to the problem.

TAMPERING WITH EQUIPMENT

Under no circumstances will subscribers move, alter, place attachments on, make additions to, or change telephone equipment, communications equipment, controllers, modems, SYTEK cabling, and modems. Tampering with or any unauthorized moves of the data equipment can result in immediate disconnection of telephone service.

EXCAVATION

To prevent damage to buried communications facilities, contact the following offices to obtain clearance before excavating on Fort Huachuca:

1. DOIM, Information Operations Division, Facilities Branch (ATZS-IMN-F), building 30120, extension 3-1730.
2. Directorate of Installation Support (DIS) Contract Management Division, extension 3-1442.

SERVICE PRIORITIES AND RESTORATION CODES

1. Priority codes. Priorities for processing DA Forms 3938 (Local Service Request) (LSR) are assigned by the commander, director, or TCO, IMO or FSPO delegated with the authority. Periodic priority lists should be submitted by the TCO/IMO/FSPO to ATZS-IMC-TC at a minimum of once a month, in the order the commander or director wants work to be accomplished, to ensure scheduling of work requirements and meeting organizational priorities concerned. A basic level of service will be provided in proportion to main lines and resources available within the DOIM. Priority codes are listed in the instructions for the DA Form 3938. Work orders submitted without priority listings will be processed as routine and worked into schedules of each geographical zone.

2. Restoration codes. Restoration codes for telephone maintenance must be identified on the LSR when requesting new services. The restoration code is for the purpose of restoring services and identifying critical circuits reported for repair service; therefore, this code sets precedence. The TCO/IMO/FSPO can submit a list to the Work Order Section identifying critical circuits and restoration codes of established circuits. The list must be approved by the commander or director. For new service, enter one of the following service restoration priority codes:

RESTORATION CODES

CODE DEFINITION

1. Mission-essential and no redundancy exists. Maximum restoration time is 24 hours.
2. Mission-essential and no redundancy exists. Maximum restoration time is 48 hours.
3. Impedes mission and no redundancy exists. Maximum restoration time is 72 hours.
4. Impedes mission, redundancy exists, routine. Maximum restoration time is 15 days.

The instructions for DA Form 3938 contain guidance on assigning restoration codes.

DA FORM 3938 (LOCAL SERVICE REQUEST)

1. All requirements to move, install, remove, and change (realign) telecommunications equipment and instruments within the capacity of the existing capabilities require completion of a DA Form 3938.
2. Technical advice for the TCO, the Functional System Proponent Officer (FSPO), and Information Management Officer (IMO) is available from the DOIM Work Order Technician at extension 3-3938.
3. The form may be filled out by the subscriber (a person that has/needs a telephone or a special circuit), but will always have to be reviewed by the subscriber's TCO to ensure completeness, viability, TCO signature and TCO number. The form is then passed to the IMO (the subscriber's Commander/Director or their representative) for final authority. The paragraph numbers in the table below are keyed to the DA Form 3938 shown in figure 1.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR DA FORM 3938 NUMBER INSTRUCTIONS

1. Communications requirements beyond the capacity of the existing system (such as installing a key system, redesigning office net works, etc.) or out of cycle requirements (such as moving from one building to another) must be coordinated through DOIM Program Management Office, extension

3-1358. This must be done prior to submitting the DA Form 3938.

2. Coordination with the DIS is appropriate in some instances and requires the user to allow more lead time for any projects. Planning the site preparation for remodeled or new facilities requires the inclusion of the communications equipment facility area; such as communication closet location(s), lighting, electrical outlets, and conduits (electrical and communications). The user must arrange for site preparation through the DIS to include the construction and/or installation of communications closets and conduit. IMOs or FSPOs requiring information regarding communications systems requirements (a communications closet, a larger cable, or duct runs) may be obtained by contacting the DOIM Planner/Estimator/Inspector at extension 8-8119.
3. IMOs submitting LSRs for sensitive compartmented information facilities (SCIFs) must coordinate with the appropriate Special Security Office (SSO) to ensure telecommunications requirements and equipment adhere to Security Regulatory Specifications. There must be an SSO Officer's Signature in the special requests block of the LSR for the SCIF indicating the SSO has validated and approved the requested communication equipment requirements and they do not violate tempest security.
4. For requests for repair assistance of existing equipment or telephone failure in normal operation, call DOIM Customer Assistance, extension 3-1111.

TCO NUMBERS AND BILLING VERIFICATIONS

1. The TCO Number is a very important part of the DA Form 3938, as it is how a telephone number is tracked and billed every month.
  - a. The Post Telephone Control Officer (PTCO) generates subscriber bills from TELMARS. The report is broken down by TCO numbers and distributed post-wide for verification of all official or authorized calls. Authorized calls differ from official calls and must be reported on DA Form 360 (Report of Authorized Official Toll Telephone Calls). This form is checked with TELMARS for that particular TCO number; if there is no listing on the DA 360, it is an unauthorized call. If necessary, the TELMARS data base will be updated to reflect changes in a TCO's list of authorized numbers.
  - b. If unauthorized or unofficial calls are noted and returned to the PTCO, the PTCO will prepare a DA Form 1131 (Cash Collection Voucher). This is prepared to reflect all charges to the individual making the unauthorized calls, and this person must handcarry the document to Finance and Accounting Office and pay in full the balance due. A paid receipt must be returned to the PTCO to verify payment has been made. This is one reason all personnel clearing post must be cleared through the DOIM PTCO.
2. If customers require new service without a previous TCO number, they have a variety of options:
  - a. They can have their sponsor provide the LSR (DA Form 3938).
  - b. They can have a temporary TCO number issued to them.
  - c. They can have a full-time TCO number issued to them.

If options 2 or 3 are used a DA Form 1687 (Notice of Authority - Receipt for Supplies) has to be completed and forwarded to the DOIM Information Support Division, building 22408. This can be handcarried or sent through the post Mail and Distribution Center to ATZS-IMC-TT. This form should indicate all telephone numbers under the TCO's responsibility. If new numbers are installed, they should be noted on the back of the DA Form 1687 and an updated copy should be sent to PTCO (it may be a reproduced copy). In the reverse, if a number has been abandoned; for example, a person has moved to a different prefix or an office has moved from one building to another building and changed prefix numbers, this should also be reported. Under all circumstances of moving, adding, or changing a number a DA Form 3938 must be completed and turned into the Telephone Work Order Desk.

3. All TCOs should have an accurate account of the telephone numbers they are responsible for and promptly report any numbers no longer in use. This is a primary reason for data base inaccuracies. For example, when numbers are not being used but are still drawing dial tone, this puts undue strain on the main switches and makes the technicians think they are out of numbers and report this to the DOIM. When these numbers are found, they are put into nouse, noring group for 30 days. After 30 days the number is turned off and returned to the switch for reissue, then the TCO who did not report the number as not in use wants to use the number and since the number has been reissued, the DOIM gets another trouble call.

SPECIAL SERVICE CIRCUITS

1. All DA Forms 3938 submitted for special service circuits for other than voice transmission must meet the following criteria identifying:
  - a. Type of Circuit: Data circuits identified as 2-wire, 4-wire, point-to-point, multipoint, long haul commercial, alarm, or intrusion detection systems, etc.
  - b. System Connectivity: Access to various Information Processing Center equipment must be coordinated with IMOs prior to submitting the LSR. All LSRs requesting connectivity via SYTEK, Ethernet, local or wide area networks, DISK or twisted pair connecting to a host computer system must have been processed and coordinated by the individual organization's IMO and the DOIM Program Management Office (PMO).
  - c. Equipment Specifications: The IMO will identify Data Terminal Equipment (DTE) and Data Circuit Equipment (DCE) and reflect any manufacturer specification requirements. Requirements will reflect whether circuits can operate over voice grade lines. Circuit requirements should reflect such information as system access, leased or customer provided equipment, modem type, make, serial number, baud rate, or bits per second transmission rate.
  - d. Network Requirements: System accessibility and any protocol prerequisites, passwords, software, or hardware requirements, should be coordinated with the PMO prior to submitting any LSR accessing the various local or wide area networks, such as the DISK SYTEK, Ethernet, etc. Diagrams reflecting circuit profile and circuit configuration from DCE to DTE are requested.
2. The information regarding the special service circuits should be placed in the Special Requests block (number 9 in the example). Any attachments (diagrams) should also be listed in the Special Requests block.

E-MAIL USER INFORMATION

1. As a DISN host user, you have access which enables you to send E-mail worldwide.
2. DISN E-Mail flows through a series of computers on the DISN network. These computers vary in types and mail transfer agents (i.e., PROFS, MMDF, INFOMAIL, etc.). E-Mail users should contact their respective IMOs for E-Mail availability or Information Support Division (extension 3-1212) for assistance in obtaining information concerning E-Mail.

FACSIMILE SERVICE

(NOTE: Facsimile (FAX) numbers for unclassified transmittal have been included in the directory listings when provided by the organizations.)

1. The Fort Huachuca Telecommunications Center (TCC) provides classified facsimile service. The TCC is located in room 1214, building 61801 (Greely Hall). Operating hours are 0700-1600; the TCC is closed Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.
2. Army Regulation (AR) 25-11, Record Communications and the Privacy Communications System (chapter 11, Facsimile Communications) contains user guidance on facsimile forms required when using the TCC to transmit classified facsimile messages.

DEFENSE SWITCHED NETWORK

- The Defense Switched Network (DSN) is the principal long-haul, voice communications network within the Defense Communications System, providing non-secure direct distance dialing service worldwide through a system of government-owned and leased automatic switching facilities. The purpose of DSN is to handle essential command and control, operations, intelligence logistic, diplomatic, and administrative traffic. The DSN system should be the user's first choice of long distance voice communications.
- The DSN system will be used only for official business or in the interest of the government.
- DSN may be used to place HMW calls from isolated or remote locations. Such calls may be approved when commercial service and the Military Affiliate Radio System are either physically unavailable or so limited as to be considered unavailable. The following conditions apply to HMW use of DSN.
  - Calls may be placed only through the local installation operator or, in the absence of an installation operator, from a telephone under a commander's supervision to ensure compliance with the controls described below.
  - Calls must be placed only during normal non-duty hours at the originating location and timed to avoid the normal duty period at the terminating location.
  - Calls must be placed only at Routine precedence and must not exceed 15 minutes in duration or incur any toll charges to the Government. Off-netting at the distant end is at the discretion of local commanders, who are encouraged to permit HMW calls.
- DSN will be restricted to:
  - Those calls that are essential, requiring a timeliness that cannot be obtained by other means, and would stand the scrutiny afforded a commercial toll call.
  - Calls should be of the shortest duration possible to conduct business.
  - The use of precedence level in consonance with the subject matter of the call as established in the National Voice Communications Precedence System.
- DSN will not be authorized for:
  - The use of, directly or indirectly, any non-appropriated fund activity (clubs, exchanges, and other unofficial activities) provided telephone service at post, camp, station, or base level except when approved by the installation DOIM.
  - Calls within an installation, metropolitan area, or confined geographical area, where other existing government-provided local telephone service is adequate.
  - Unofficial or personal calls.
- The National Communications Voice Precedence System is directed for the use of all authorized users of voice communication facilities of the Department of Defense. Since the effectiveness of the system depends on the cooperation of persons authorized to employ it, users must be familiar with the purpose served by each level of the precedence category, and the types of calls which may be assigned the respective precedence.
- Precedence dialing instructions:
  - Dial 93 + (DSN area code) + 7 digit telephone number for Priority.
  - Dial 92 + (DSN area code) + 7 digit telephone number for Immediate.
  - Dial 91 + (DSN area code) + 7 digit telephone number for Flash.

NOTE: DSN area code not required when calling within the same DSN area code.
- Precedence dialing may not be available on all installations.
- The Defense Switched Network is constantly changing to provide better service, occasionally this means a number change. If a number change recording is reached, contact the DSN Information Operator, (312 + 231-1311). Report changes to the office listed under "REPORTING ERRORS/CHANGES."

REPORTING ERRORS/CHANGES TO THE DSN DIRECTORY

Errors, changes, and/or suggestions concerning this listing should be directed to your Installation Communications Clerk. All changes in this directory are the result of user suggestion.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

With the exception of the Pacific area, Fort Richardson, Fort Wainwright, and Fort Greely subscribers cannot access Overseas locations directly. Calls to these areas must be placed through the servicing switchboard.
